

2018-2019 SNAP Benefits Certification (Dependent Student)

Print Student's Name

Student ID

Your parents certify that a member of their household, received benefits from SNAP (Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program) formerly known as the Food Stamp Program, during 2016 or 2017. Some states may have a different name for the SNAP program. Please contact 1-800-433-3243 for assistance in determining the name used in a specific state.

The parent's household includes:

- The student.
- The parents (including a stepparent) even if the student doesn't live with the parents.
- The parents' other children if the parents will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2018, through June 30, 2019, or if the other children would be required to provide parental information if they are completing a FAFSA for 2018-2019. Include children who meet either of these standards even if the children do not live with the parents.
- Other people if they know live with the parents and the parents provide more than half of their support and will continue to provide more than half of their support through June 30, 2019.

If we have reason to believe the information regarding the receipt of SNAP benefits is inaccurate, we may require documentation from the agency that issued the SNAP benefits in 2016 or 2017.

I certify that one of the persons in the parents' household received SNAP benefits in 2016 or 2017. If asked by the school, I will provide documentation of the receipt of SNAP benefits.

I certify that No One in the parents' household received SNAP benefits in 2016 or 2017.

Each person signing this document certifies that all of the information reported is complete and correct. The student and one parent whose information is included on the FAFSA must sign and date this certification.
